

Kenrick-Theological Seminary

I understand that Kenrick Theological Seminary is a formation program that requires my participation and transparency as I am evaluated as a suitable candidate for the priesthood.

“Care should be taken (by the seminarian) to ensure that issues of human formation that properly belong to the external forum are not limited to the spiritual direction relationship for their resolution.” PPF131

I understand that my participation in human formation (external forum) may include work with the in-house counselor.

I understand that the counselor Dr. Susanne Harvath will provide me with confidentiality, but will be required to report to Rev. James Mason, Rev. Paul Hoelsing and Rev. Fadi Auro as necessary for my consideration as a fit candidate and in accordance with seminary procedures.

“The sharing of this information presumes a due respect for the rights of the seminarian and a prudent maintenance of confidentiality.” PPF40

I, _____ grant Dr. Susanne Harvath permission to disclose such information to these parties as the counselor informs me of the need to do so.

I understand that I may revoke this permission to release information at any time.
